rmy experts who are studying clos the progress of the war in Europ d who are looking forward to anothe tion among other things to the condu the trench warfare which has been prominent a feature, especially of vestern European front.

The hardships suffered by the troo in the trenches on the western from last winter have been described fre quently, but leaders of the allies ar credited with saying it will be much different this winter.

The importance of trench war in Eu-rope lends special interest to the fact that Admiral Peary, who recently olaced his services at the disposal of Secretary Daniels, stated that in the veget of this country becoming involved went of this country becoming involved in war he would be able materially to increase the officiency of any force en-raged in trench warfare during a win-gaged in trench warfare during a win-ter campaian.

Admirat Peury has not disclosed de-tails of his plan, but it is understood he referred to the lessons he learned in the Arctic and that he believes they can be applied to winter campaigning in the trenches. The fact that Admiral Pears had made this statement came from high authority today.

Submarine Sinks Liner: 71 Perish

Austrian Undersea Boat Torpedoes French Ship in Mediterranean.

LONDON, Oct. 18 .- Seventy-one perished when an austrian submarine sank the French steamship Admiral Hame lin in the Mediterranean. A later message from Marseilles via Paris said that thirty-three of the Hamelin's crew had been landed at Margeilles, but mentioned no loss of life. It was uncertain whether the thirty-three included all on board. The Marseilles measure said the at-tack was without warning. The sub-marine captain was reported to have said the Hamelin was armed, which the crew denied.

Murder Trial Reopens in Italy With Probe of "Intimate Revelations."

COMO, Italy, Oct. 18.—The Porter Charlton murder trial reopened here to-day with an examination of Charlton, concerning what were described as "Intimate revelations" not contained in the official court documents. Most of the examination was behind closed doors. At this examination's conclusion the defense is expected to ask the trial's nostponement until October 25, on account of the illness of Miceli Picardi, of Charlton's counsel, as well as the incompleteness of the expert statement Dr. Desleminicis is preparing relative to Charlton's mental condition at the time Charlton's mental condition of the murder of his wife.

A pretty though quiet wedding was solemnized Friday afternoon, October 15, at 2 octook, when Mass Esther Khilmon, daughter of Mrs. Eva A. Kilimon, became the bride of Maurice A. Martin, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Maitin, of Randolph place. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's mother by the Rev. Charles E. Fullz, paster of the United Brethren Church. The house was decorated with autumn leaves and in the how window, where the young couple stood, was an arch of autumn leaves, from which was suspended a large wedding bell. The bride was gowned in white crepe de chine, trimmed in smocking and line lace, and carried a shower bouquet of Iride roses. Their only attendant was Pour las Shaffer, who acted as best man.

10. the immediate families of both parlies and a few intimate friends of the bride and bridegroom were present.
